Re: Seitz, et al. v. DeQuarto, et al.
08-CV-1537 (SCR)

Dear Judge Robinson:

I am an Assistant Attorney General in the office of Andrew M. Cuomo, Attorney General of the State of New York. On behalf of the defendants, this letter is written to request a thirty-day extension to respond to the complaint until May 1, 2008. Because counsel for the plaintiffs, Marsha S. Weiss, Esq., was out of the office, Andrew S. Regenbaum, Esq., a colleague of counsel who is familiar with the case, has consented to this extension on her behalf. At this time, two of the three defendants have been personally served, and the third defendant, Paul DeQuarto, will return the service of the summons and complaint shortly, as will the other two defendants. Counsel for defendants will likely represent all defendants eventually served.

Accordingly, in order to allow for completion of service, and for discussions with my clients in order to properly respond to the complaint, the defendants respectfully request a thirty-day extension to respond to the complaint as set forth above.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Frederick Wen
